Shooting Stars For U.S. National Guard

Speedy new army air forces' Lockheed P-80B jet-propelled "Shooting Stars" like these will be delivered to the Air National Guard next spring for the training of reserve pilots. Eighty-six of these super-fighter planes, shown on the Lockheed test base at Van Nuys, Calif., will be furnished to the A.N.G. The P-80B has the greatest firepower of any jet fighter plane in the world. Six machine guns in the nose fire 1,200 rounds a minute. A pilot-ejector seat, an air-conditioned, pressurized cockpit are new features of the ship.

Churchill Foresees Bevan As Successor To Attlee

LONDON (AP)—Winston Churchill said tonight the Labor government's "economic crisis" legislation conferred powers of virtual dictatorship on a cabinet whose Prime Minister "might be discarded" at any moment.

Churchill addressed the House of Commons as it moved toward final action of the bill, approved last week in a preliminary vote.

Churchill said "a convulsion" in the Labor party might result in the powers falling to "the Minister of Health (Aneurin Bevan), or someone else."

Churchill spoke after the House rejected a Conservative amendment to the bill by a vote of 256 to 125.

The amendment, proposed by Conservative member James Reid, was the first of a series of the opposition has threatened to put to the bill's Section C.

The section describes the purposes of the bill as "generally ensuring that the whole resources of the community are available for use and are used in a manner best calculated to serve the interests of the community."

Reid said the amendments would remove the risk that Labor back benchers would force the government to go further than it intended to go, while at the same time leaving the government with the powers it claimed to seek under the bill.

Premier Pasha Says Millions Resent British

LAKE SUCCESS (AP)—Nokrashy Pasha, premier of Egypt, today warned the United Nations' Security Council that failure to get British troops out of Egypt might lead to bloodshed and violence.

Making his second appeal for council action against the United Kingdom, the premier said in a 9,000-word prepared speech:

"The millions of people who inhabit the valley of the Nile have never ceased to resent the presence of British forces on Egyptian territory.

Held Responsible For Pilot's Death
Over Bent Spoon

MONTREAL (CP)—A coroner's jury today found Marcel Vaillancourt, 37, criminally responsible for the death by shooting of Norman Milne, 31-year-old test pilot killed early Sunday morning after a dispute over a bent spoon.

Vaillancourt, restaurant owner from suburban Cartierville, was wounded himself in the leg and had an operation today. He told police he was wounded by his own gun which Milne allegedly had seized from him.

Witnesses testified at the inquest the dispute began when
Mrs. Vaillancourt charged Mrs.
Milne 45 cents for a spoon which,
it was claimed, Milne had bent.
Milne, former Calgary resident, had already left the restaurant
but returned, claimed the price was too high and threatened to call the police.

Vaillancourt agreed, witnesses said, and the two men went into a back room to use a telephone.
Sgt. Detective William Fitzpatrick of the homicide squad testified Vaillancourt claimed that as he was standing on a chair to turn on a light Milne seized him and threw him down on some soft drink cases.

Vaillancourt then was quoted as saying he drew his revolver from his pocket but before he could point it Milne grabbed it and saying, "I'll shoot you," fired, striking Vaillancourt in the leg.
Arthur Forman and Harry
Brown testified the two men came out of the room immediately after the shot and that Vaillancourt was holding the gun, pointing it at Milne. They said Milne stood against the wall and made no move before Vaillancourt fired at him three times.

Possible Immigrants
Impress Minister

FRANKFURT (CP)—Rt. Hon.
C. D. Howe, Canadian reconstruction Minister, said today after visiting displaced persons camps here that he was "very favorably impressed" with D.P.s in Germany as potential immigrants to Canada.

"I was pleased with what I saw," he said. "People seem clean and happy, busy learning skilled trades and anxious to do productive work. I get the impression they would be very desirable settlers for Canada."

Canada has agreed to admit woodworkers, sugar beet and textile workers, Howe said. There are also immigration prospects for D.P.s as needle workers, gold miners and "in various industrial trades."

Fires Flare Up On Cape Breton

Dominion Official Catches Big Salmon

A thirty-two and a half pound salmon, on his first try at salmon fishing, was the proud record of H. V. Anderson, O.B.E., director of marine services, Department of Transport, Ottawa, when he was taken on a fishing trip at Brentwood by R. W. Mayhew, M.P., Saturday.

Mr. Anderson had been visiting Victoria for two days inspecting the waterfront with Mr. Mayhew, and he left Saturday afternoon for Prince Rupert by plane. Hugh Creed acted as guide for the fishing trip and furnished the boat. The party caught seven salmon.

H. H. England illustrated his address on "Begonia Culture" to the meeting of Oak Bay Community Garden Club with a magnificent display of cut blooms, including scarlet field marshall giant ruffles and vividly colored specimens of the camellia type and two potted pink and crimson live plants. The speaker stressed the importance of correct soils, fertilizers and keeping plants in a steamed or foggy atmosphere, and seasons for tubers, seed and cutting planting.

5,000 Attend Elk Lake Park Opening

Victoria Eagles, families and friends, turned out in force at the Sunday picnic which opened the Eagles' Memorial Park, Elk Lake. Here, a section of the large crowd is seen lined along the course where 32 events were run off.

An all-day picnic—the biggest in the history of Victoria Eagles—was held Sunday at Elk Lake to open the new Eagles' Memorial Park. An estimated 5,000 persons attended the affair, including a number of Eagles from the state of Washington.

Thirty-two races were included on the sports program and a softball game was played between single and married members of the order. The winner of this game played the Eagles. Hot dogs, ice cream, soda pop, peanuts and watermelon were available for the children.

The making of the park was carried out by the members themselves. When the project is fully completed it will be opened for use by the general public.

Ex-Chief Of Ford Of Canada Dies; Plant Idle Tuesday

WALLACE R. CAMPBELL

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP) — Ford Motor Company of Canada's huge Windsor plant will shut down Tuesday in tribute to one of the key men in its great development, Wallace R. Campbell, 65, president for 17 years and chairman of the board since April, 1946, who died at his home Sunday after a long illness.

On that day he will be borne to rest by senior Ford employees who worked with him in building the company into a leader in Canada's automobile industry. It was in 1905—when the "horseless carriage" was still being laughed at as a new fad which would soon fade—that Wallace Ronald Campbell left a $4.50 a week job as a general handyman to become Ford's first bookkeeper. He became president of the company in March, 1929.

Mr. Campbell also was treasurer until 1942 when pressure of wartime duties forced him to relinquish the position.

Mayor McGeer, Vancouver, Dies Suddenly In His Study

VANCOUVER (CP) — Senator G. G. McGeer, 59, mayor of Vancouver, died suddenly at his home here early today. Body of the fiery Liberal senator for Vancouver Burrard was found lying in his study by his police-chauffeur shortly after 10 this morning.

The mayor's death was announced shortly before noon today by Chief of Police Walter Mulligan. Senator McGeer had returned to the city Sunday from Nelson where he officiated during the golden jubilee celebrations there last week. He told reporters on his return that he was "feeling fine."

Sunday night he put on his pyjamas and retired to his study-den to work on some papers. Members of the family never disturbed him at such times, and his death was not discovered until constable driver Andy Scully called for him this morning. The body was covered with two blankets.

The Senator-Mayor's physician warned him repeatedly against overwork, following his election as Chief Magistrate of Vancouver last December. He spent some time in a rest home at Battle Creek, Michigan, several weeks ago, but returned to work against advice of physicians.

Gerald Gratton McGeer, known throughout British Columbia as

Cheaper For Indian To Drink Liquor Than To Carry It

This could probably be put under the heading of "Some of Our Queer Laws."

It pertains to Indians and liquor. It costs an Indian a great deal more in a monetary way as well as in length of jail term for merely carrying a bottle about and being caught with it than it would if he consumed the same and was 'wrought before' the court charged with drunkenness.

Two who were caught with wine and other liquor in their possession Saturday night were fined $25, or in default, one month in jail by J. R. Saunders, J.P., when they appeared before him in city court today and pleaded guilty.

Had they been charged with being drunk for a first offence the fine would have been $10, or in default three days in jail.

3rd Polio Suspect In Hospital Here

Another suspected case of poliomyelitis has been admitted to Royal Jubilee Hospital, Dr. J. H. Preston, assistant medical health officer, said today.

If this case, a child, is confirmed, it will bring to three the total number of polio cases in Victoria this year. The other two are still in hospital and progressing satisfactorily. Dr. Preston said. A case from Duncan is also receiving treatment here.

Dr. Preston said that medical authorities are hoping the present damp and somewhat cooler weather will serve as a curb on further incidence of the disease. The danger period extends until the middle of September.

Saanich Leads Week's Building

Saanich led last week's building figures with 26 permits issued for a total building value of $48,175. This included 13 dwellings, total value $44,250.

The city issued 34 permits during the week for a total of $47,005. These included three houses, a Sunday school and the foundations for the B.C. Electric garage on Garbally Road.

Four permits were issued in Oak Bay for a total value of $20,000, including a store and apartment at 2517-19 Estevan Street, $9,000, and a dwelling and garage at 2270 Harlow, $7,000. The remainder were for improvements.

Three permits were issued in Esquimalt for construction totaling $5,550.

Bent Spoon Cause Of Fatal Shooting

MONTREAL (CP) — A bent spoon, which provoked an argument between a restaurant owner and a customer, was reported Sunday night by police to have led to the fatal shooting of the customer.

Norman Mile, 33, died almost instantly from a bullet wound in the heart after a scuffle with restaurant owner Marcel Vaillancourt, 37. Mile was one of a party that included his wife. Police said the gun which fired the fatal shot was one Vaillancourt kept in the restaurant for protection.

They said the argument broke out when Vaillancourt sought to obtain 65 cents as payment for the bent spoon, on the ground that Mile had bent it. Police said Vaillancourt then suggested that 45 cents would cover the loss, at which point Mile said he intended to call police.

Police said that Vaillancourt had the gun near him while he was making up his receipts for the night. They said that according to the information they received, the gun had been snatched by Mile and that Vaillancourt had suffered a leg wound when the pistol discharged. Vaillancourt managed to retrieve the revolver, police said, and the next shot struck Mile in the chest.

Toll Of British Train Crash Now 18

DONCASTER, Eng. (AP) — The death toll in Saturday's railroad wreck near here rose to 18 Sunday when one of the 70 injured passengers died in a hospital.

The wreck occurred when one London-to-Leeds holiday express train crashed into the rear of another.

Six passengers were killed outright and 11 others, including one child, died later of injuries. The locomotive of one train, smashed into matchwood the four rear coaches of another train that had stopped at a suburban station. The locomotive was thrown on its side and three coaches behind it were derailed, but the engineer and fireman jumped to safety.

Leaders Pay Tribute To Great Work Done By Mayor McGeer

Tributes to the late Senator G. G. McGeer, who passed away suddenly today at Vancouver, came from all parts of B.C. and other points in Canada.

"A distinguished and public-spirited citizen in the person of Senator G. G. McGeer, K.C., has been taken by death and his loss will be felt not only by a host of friends but by the people of British Columbia, whom he served for so many years," Premier John Hart said on hearing of Mayor McGeer's death.

"Senator McGeer was a militant servant of the people, both as an elected representative and as a member of the Senate. He will be best remembered, perhaps, for his fight for equalization of the freight rates."

"He was a distinguished member of the Bar. His rise from his original trade to the legal profession and thence to the high and responsible position he finally held, was a tribute to his determination and sincerity of purpose." As a member of the provincial Legislature and of the House of Commons respectively he has left many valuable laws on the statute books as a memorial to his public service.

"As mayor of Vancouver he initiated many constructive undertakings."

"As a member of the Senate he will be remembered for his valuable contribution to the debates in the Upper House. I join with his many friends in extending to his family my sincere condolences."

"I knew Mr. McGeer for many, many years and was always impressed by his great sincerity in serving the people and working for their best interests."

Man Had Mania For Women's Underwear

A young man, who pleaded guilty to stealing five pairs of women's underwear from a clothesline last week was classed as a person who has a "mania for women's underclothing," and he was ordered to post a $250 bond to be on his good behaviour by A. I. Thomas and J. R. Saunders, J.P.'s in city police court this morning.

W. Alex Brethour was the defence counsel and called Dr. D. E. Alcorn, psychiatrist, to the stand to give evidence following his examination of accused. The doctor gave a report on his diagnosis and prosecutor Claude L. Harrison got a reply in the affirmative from him to the question: "The substance of it is that he's got a mania for women's underwear?"

Constable Norman Galbraith gave the court the circumstances.

Lowest bid was submitted by Dawson and Hall Ltd., which offered to do the job for $31,977.

Other tenders were: Hilway Construction Co. Ltd., $34,848; Campbell, Bennett Ltd., $62,061; Jamieson Construction Co. Ltd., $39,330; Kennedy Construction Co. and O. Stevens, $44,299, and H. G. Barber and Co., $32,763.

Charge Withdrawn

In city police court this morning a charge of theft of an automobile against Edward Pollard and John F. Enright was withdrawn at the request of city prosecutor C. L. Harrison.

Mr. Harrison told the court that Al. Jorgensen, Tacoma, staying in the St. James Hotel, said he had had some drinks with the accused "and does not know for sure now whether he gave permission to the two accused to use the car." He added that in view of this doubt the charges should be withdrawn.

Attlee Survives Crisis On Steel Nationalization

LONDON (AP) — Labor party members of Parliament voted approval today to a decision by Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet to defer nationalization of the steel industry, perhaps for the duration of Britain's economic crisis.

A Socialist informant said more than 100 Labor members abstained from voting at the party caucus. Attlee's margin of victory was only four votes—81 to 77. This action forced recalcitrant members to withdraw a resolution calling on the government to undertake the steel program at the next session of Parliament, opening in October.

Labor party left-wingers have been attacking Attlee on the ground crisis program was "too little and too late" and his leadership was uninspiring.

One faction called for immediate resumption of trade negotiations with Russia. Sir Stafford Cripps, president of the board of trade, replied that the next move was up to the Russians, Socialist sources reported after the secret meeting. The trade talks broke down recently when Britain refused to ease repayment of a wartime credit to Russia.

CUT ARMED FORCES

Other members called for cuts in the armed forces more drastic than Attlee has projected.

Members of the government said "everything possible" was being done to reduce the army, navy and air forces.

On the steel issue, government spokesmen told the caucus there

Death Cuts Short Brilliant Career Of Fishery Master

OTTAWA (CP) — Burly, genial H. F. G. Bridges, Canada's Minister of Fisheries and one of the youngest members of the Dominion cabinet, died suddenly Sunday morning of a heart ailment at the age of 45.

The towering, broad-shouldered lawyer-soldier statesman from New Brunswick, who stepped almost directly from the army into the cabinet less than two years ago, died at 9:50 a.m. in Ottawa's Civic Hospital only a few days after the discovery of an unsuspected heart condition.

Death of the youthful minister, who moved into the cabinet immediately after his first election to Parliament in 1945, came in the ascendancy of a fast-rising political career.

From a school teacher who studied law in his spare moments, he had pulled himself into the speakership of the New Brunswick Legislature at 34, broke with his party leaders in that province and then, after war service overseas, swept into the federal field in the 1945 general election.

Mr. Bridges was a first cousin of George F. Gregory, Victoria lawyer, whose home is at 766 Oliver Street. The minister's brother carries the same name as the Victorian. He is G. F.

Gregory Bridges, mayor of Moncton, N.B.

The late minister visited this city twice after his appointment to the cabinet. The last time here, Mr. Bridges addressed a joint meeting of the Laurier and Guro Clubs.

'NO EASY WORDS'

WHEN HE TOLD THE PEOPLE OF BRITAIN last night that he had no easy words for them, that they were facing a situation as serious as any in their long history, Mr. Attlee underscored in the gravest possible tones what the public had learned from the parliamentary debates during recent days. Nor could the Prime Minister be expected to fill in the details of a new austerity program in advance of tests of new experiments which he and his ministerial colleagues deem essential for economic survival in the light of a dwindling supply of dollars and other circumstances—a chain of events which for the most part can be charged up to two global conflicts and Britain's contributions to them.

In his appeal for "willing acceptance of sacrifice for the common good," because the "national effort must come first," the head of the government did not overlook that element of the populace which might not respond to the need of "equality of sacrifice." If an inferential threat were intended here, Mr. Attlee chose words of emphasis which he obviously considered would appeal to the finer instincts of those who might, because of their antipathy to the administration's basic economic philosophy, use dimly defined plans of recovery for purely political purposes. Mr. Churchill already has accused the cabinet of demanding a "blank cheque for totalitarianism"—to which the Prime Minister has replied that he is asking no more authority than the Labor Party received from the electorate two years ago. But when he declared without equivocation that "new techniques" would have to be learned, that drastic adjustments would have to be made on an "industry-by-industry" basis, and that the workers would be subject to the most advantageous disposition of their services, Mr. Attlee knew he was foreshadowing fundamental formulae diametrically in conflict with the practices of the free enterprise system—and that differs only in degree from the type of regimentation which the average Briton abhors. It is patently the fear of this, and its subsequent consequences, which evoked the bitter accusation of the wartime Prime Minister.

Regardless of how Mr. Churchill feels toward the Prime Minister's outline of the next "Battle of Britain," however, and despite Mr. Attlee's anticipated method of approach to the crisis whose impact the man in the street is feeling every day, the plain fact remains that a situation "as serious as any in our long history" cannot be improved and beaten by high-sounding rhetoric. Whether the present Socialist administration has the right formula, or the best formula, calculated to prevent further economic chaos, or whether the prospect confronting the nation at the moment demands action similar to that which Parliament took in the dark days of May seven years ago—these are questions to which only the government in power can supply the answer.

Friends of Britain everywhere, in the meantime, will sympathize with her people. Critics will be free with their advice. Some will forget what the rest of the world owes to the men and women who valiantly resisted the foe on the ramparts of democracy in the months of 1940 and 1941—when only the nations of the Commonwealth stood between the forces of darkness and liberty. The cost of the battle which a relatively few fought and won while other soldiers of freedom prepared to take their part in defending their way of life cannot be computed in dollars. But it is the dollars now, apparently, which can help to give some form of permanence to the fruits of that costly victory.

AROUND AGAIN

THE INHERENT URGE THAT MAKES man try to go faster and farther to new places in new ways has triumphed again. Pilot Bill Odum has set a new record in the world record in his converted A-26 bomber, covering a 19,645-mile circuit around the globe in 73 hours, 5 minutes and 11 seconds. His elapsed time was less than half of Wiley Post's record of 186 hours in 1933, and was comfortably under the recent record set in the same plane by Mr. Milton Reynolds and Odum himself.

The thousands of stay-at-homes who followed newspaper and radio accounts of the bomber as it sped from one landing place to another around the world received a vicarious thrill. For Odum himself, a veteran of 30 flights across the Atlantic with the R.A.F. Ferry Command during the war as well as flying experience in China, there must have been much of the routine about the flight. Buoyed by the realization of his victory, but fighting off sleep and fatigue, the sight of the airport at Chicago must have been a welcome one.

There is more than mere exhibitionism or sport in such flights. Each similar vital testing of equipment and methods, adds its quota to the sum of knowledge. Each circumnavigation makes it easier for the next one. But the trail-blazers will have the satisfaction that comes of successful pioneering; their names will forever be a part of aviation's page in history.

HON. H. F. G. BRIDGES

HIS MANY FRIENDS THROUGHOUT Canada and especially his colleagues in the federal cabinet were shocked yesterday to learn of the sudden death of Hon. H. F. G. Bridges, Minister of Fisheries, of whose future in the national political arena a great deal had been expected. Although he was only 45 years of age, he already had made a name for himself in the Legislature of his native New Brunswick before he went overseas in the Second World War, and on his first bid for a seat in the House of Commons in 1945 he scored a handsome victory in a three-cornered contest. On his two visits to Victoria Mr. Bridges impressed all with whom he came in contact by the earnestness with which he was attacking the problems of his important portfolio and with the intimate knowledge which he had gained of the operations of his department in so short a time. He possessed a commanding personality, a keen sense of humor, a ready eloquence and was the personification of that sturdy Canadianism of which natives of New Brunswick are so justly proud. In his untimely passing the Dominion government has sustained a serious loss.

WORTHY EFFORT

THE CANADIAN SWIMMING AND DIVING championships being held in the Crystal Garden today and tomorrow, and sponsored by the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club, will be the first major event to be staged by that organization since its return to prominence in local sporting circles. A large group of swimmers has reached the city from points throughout Canada to compete for national titles against local natators, including Victoria Y.M.C.A. stars fresh from victories at Kelowna. Sports-minded residents of this city will welcome the visiting competitors and extend a word of congratulation to the club which has made this week's program possible. The V.A.S.C. has long been a familiar organization in this community. The present revitalization of its plans, comprising as they do the recent schoolchildren's gala and the forthcoming national title meet, is to be commended.

TOUGH FOR 'THE STARS'

HOLLYWOOD SEEMS TO BE TERRIBLY worried because Britain has found it necessary to limit her imports of American films in order to help to eke out the dollars the British treasury borrowed from Washington under the loan bill of last year. It had been hoped that this financial accommodation would tide the Old Land over until 1950. It will not. Before the end of the present year, according to Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton, the last few cents will pass through the economic hour glass—and until Congress meets at the dawn of 1948 such additional financial aid for which it may be desirable to ask the United States cannot be considered.

In the meantime, however, the Associated Press dispatch from Hollywood paints a gloomy picture. It tells the people of the United States and the rest of the world that Britain's new austerity program may mean a cut in the salaries of those artists who are described as "top stars." Movie fans in Britain, of course, will not relish curtailment of screen entertainment on which they have relied for so long for a substantial part of their indoor amusement. But they will assuredly not be expected to build a walling wall and bemoan the prospect of the "bright lights" of the silver screen having their salaries reduced to about three times the annual stipend paid to the President of the United States.

'CHICKEN FEED'

HUGE IS THE ADJECTIVE BEING used to describe the sum with which Mr. Trygve Lie has asked the members of the United Nations to supply him to run the organization for the next fiscal year. It should be noted, however, that the Secretary-General requires a larger amount next year than he did last because wages and salaries have gone up, and also because funds are necessary to finance the various economic and other commissions now operating in many parts of this troubled world.

The budget stipulated is $39,403,782, compared with $27,740,000 for 1947, and it is furnished, of course, by the 55 states which comprise the membership of the General Assembly. But to describe such a sum as "huge" in contrast to the amount spent on two world conflicts is to draw the long bow with a vengeance. Running the United Nations for a year, in the hope of staving off a war that conceivably could put an end to civilization, for less than $40,000,000 should be described in the vernacular as "chicken feed."

SHORT-CHANGING CANADA

OTTAWA'S POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT has intimated to the Canadian Press that it has officially notified its postal offices and stations "from Vancouver to Halifax" that there is a lot of counterfeit American currency from $10 to $100 bills floating around, and has asked its postmasters to keep a sharp lookout for the "funny" money. All of which is wise precaution.

On our own account, however, we repeat the advice from the Department of the Postmaster-General for the benefit of those who supervise the distribution of the mails in two considerable sections of the Dominion which are situated slightly southwest of Vancouver and slightly northeast of Halifax. Victoria and Sydney are still important communities in this great country. But how often Ottawa seems to forget them!

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP
EVEN PUPPETS ARE HUMAN

A VITALLY SIGNIFICANT new problem is beginning to be earnestly debated among the makers of American foreign policy. It can be expressed in a simple question: What will be the result of repeated conflicts of national interest between the Soviet Union and its satellite states?

This may sound pretty academic. Yet the problem has been brought to the fore by completely concrete and frequently highly dramatic reports from behind the iron curtain. The reports concern the events leading up to the Soviet's puppet's unanimous refusal to participate in the Marshall plan for European reconstruction. The public humiliation of Czechoslovakia, which is now called at Prague, "the Munich in reverse," is known to the whole world. But now that the returns are in from all over eastern Europe, they disclose that the pattern was approximately the same everywhere.

IN BUDAPEST, for example, the Communist-dominated Hungarian government was as anxious to become eligible for the benefits of the Marshall plan as was the Communist-led government at Prague. It was never publicly announced, yet the Hungarian cabinet is now known to have actually appointed a delegation to attend the Paris conference on the Marshall plan. The chief delegate was to have been the Minister of Communications, M. Gero, himself a Communist, and even the lesser members of his staff had been selected.

Then General Sviridov, Soviet commander in Hungary, requested an interview with Hungary's new puppet premier, Dinnyes. In talking to Dinnyes, Sviridov minced no words. According to reliable reports, he pointed out that the Soviets could strip Hungary bare through their control of German and Italian assets; that there were still unnumbered Hungarian prisoners of war in Russia; and finally that a Soviet refusal to ratify the Hungarian peace treaty would have disagreeable consequences—such as the permanent retention of the Soviet garrison in Hungary.

DINNYES LISTENED TO this rather forceful sort of reason. The Hungarian refusal to go to Paris was promptly announced. Hungarian leaders are now frankly congratulating themselves, in conversations with foreigners, on their good fortune in avoiding the public humiliation of the Czechs.

In Finland no less than in Hungary, members of the cabinet frankly wished to send a deputation to Paris. Foreign Minister Enkell is even known to have branded rumors that Finns would refuse the Paris invitation as mere Communist tactics of confusion. But Enkell, together with the rest of the Finnish people, learned that Finland had indeed refused as rumored—from the Moscow radio.

IN POLAND, MEMBERS of the government were obviously distressed but made no complaint. Some Polish Socialists, however, dared to demand the sending of a Polish deputation to Paris. No deputation went, and recently reports have come from Warsaw that additional arrests of Socialists are now occurring, on the ground that they lack "the will to co-operate" with the Communists.

The process of crushing out all possible opposition is also proceeding apace in Romania. The arrests of Dr. Iuliu Maniu and other leaders of the Peasant party occurred some time ago. Now the party's remaining deputies have been expelled from the parliament, and just to round the thing off, a new party leadership has been officially appointed. The leaders are a certain Popovici, a co-operative but complete deaf nonentity, and Professor Zanne, who has the valuable qualification of being a protégé of Andrei Vishinskiy.

THE IMPORTANT FACTOR about these phenomena is that they are bound to repeat themselves. It is not only that the Soviet Union wishes its satellites to have no contact with the west. There is a vital additional factor—The Russians also want their satellites to provide them with raw materials and manufactured goods. And the satellites in turn must depend on the Soviet Union for other goods and raw materials which they are now prevented from securing from western Europe or the United States. New conflicts must thus arise. And the bullying tactics used to secure obedience to the Kremlin's edict against the Marshall plan, will have to be used again whenever there is another conflict.

IN THE CASES OF FINLAND and Czechoslovakia, this presents a special problem. These nations are not yet completely puppetized. If their governments are constantly forced to subordinate the national interest to Soviet interest, the peoples will turn against the governments. Then the Soviets will have to choose between relaxing their present control, or resorting to puppetization by force. But even within the confines of the countries already puppetized, the same process will also work.

MEN LIKE DINNYES and Gero in Hungary, for example, by pressing Moscow for a better deal for their people, will eventually incur the Kremlin's suspicions. More and more object puppet will be demanded and installed. The present system of delegating control of the satellites to governments like that in Hungary may thus gradually begin to break down. Yet the system can only be replaced by extension of direct Soviet responsibility. The question being asked in Washington is whether the Soviet system can support these added strains upon its administrative and other resources.

I'll Huff And I'll Puff—

A World Without Children

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

MRS. MARGARET SANGER suggests complete birth control as a solution of the economic problem of the postwar world. Mrs. Sanger is an American in her early sixties and has had three children of her own. She has been advocating birth control for many years in the United States and has reportedly gone to Britain and Europe to tell the people over there that all their problems would be solved if they ceased to have any more children for the next ten years.

DULL WITHOUT THEM

Such a "slaughter" of the great unborn would undoubtedly cut down immensely the food and other bills connected with the birth and raising of children. Ten years of a babeless world would also save a lot of money on education, and by the end of that period all the lower school grades would be closed.

The world would then be like the town of Hamelin after the Pied Piper had lured the children with his enchantment into an opening in the mountain side, leaving behind a lone lame boy who sadly complained, "It's dull in our town since my playmates left." It would be a dull town indeed that had no children. Home and family life would cease to exist—although many young married couples in these days seem to think that children are not necessary to home life.

SMALLER HOMES

But this may be largely due to restrictions of modern apartments where landlords, and many tenants, regard children as a nuisance. Perhaps they are a nuisance under such confined conditions—and the youngsters probably regard such conditions as a nuisance.

So far as the big cities are concerned, apartment life and the shortage of housing have already imposed upon us a rigid system of birth control. Moreover, the five-room bungalow puts a definite limit to the size of the average family. The mother instinct is strong in most women and it suffers from frustration when its exercise is limited. That may explain why so many mothers of large families have been happy and "easy-going," and why their offspring are usually more self-reliant.

NOT NEW

The idea of birth control is not a modern one. It was practised in many primitive societies and in ancient civilizations. Birth control may have been responsible for the decline and fall of Greece and Rome, and of the highly cultured races which appeared and disappeared unaccountably in various parts of South America. Birth control has been condemned as a form of race suicide, and if the people of North America were to follow Mrs. Sanger's advice their civilization would pass into oblivion along with that of the ancient Mayas of Yucatan.

Two Neighbors Unite For Recovery

By P. O. LAPLIE

P. O. Laplie was one of the first French political men to join General de Gaulle in 1940, coming from the French Expeditionary Corps in Norway where he was a captain in the Foreign Legion. Before the war he was a member of parliament for Meurthe-et-Moselle. He was Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs in the Blum cabinet last December. This cabinet initiated the French-British talks which resulted in the Anglo-French Alliance signed at Dunkerque last March.

FRANCE and England have joined forces for the European reconstruction effort to be based on the Marshall proposal. Some countries approach them for this. But how could the two oldest countries of Europe, so long responsible for its evolution, escape this new responsibility today?

UPS AND DOWNS

I am aware that Franco-British relations have had their ups and downs and that even now there is not complete agreement on every subject. I know that these two countries which bore so much of the weight of the war are worn out as a result. But on whom could Europe depend, if not on France and England?

France's worries, like those of England, are chiefly domestic. The fatigue, one might almost say exhaustion, is evident. In England, the coal question, there is not enough coal; manpower is short; the number of office workers is increasing; the price of tobacco is going up; the circulation of paper money is excessive. The picture is dark and the life of the average Englishman is difficult, very difficult.

The life of the average Frenchman is also very difficult. The food supply situation is graver; the crop is poor; negotiations over the Ruhr fail to bring us sufficient coal; smelting, the basis of industry, is advancing only very slowly; strikes have been incited and exploited.

NOT DROPPING OUT

England is suffering an economic and financial crisis, but she is getting along through strict rationing and a rigidly balanced budget. She has not withdrawn from external affairs and gone into seclusion as a wounded victor, but on the contrary has granted foreign loans amounting to £37,000,000 since the close of hostilities. The city is seeking to renew the currents of international trade. The trade unions are trying to improve the individual worker's output. Those who have talked about England's dropping out of the picture are seeing their predictions given a lie.

It is the same for those who forecast the collapse of France. The Republican regime had fallen in 1940 with the fall of France, but the provisional assemblies, the two constituent assemblies proposed a new republic and the people adopted it. This country, so savagely wrecked, has rebuilt its bridges and its roads and re-established its rail system in less than two years.

In the midst of political difficulties, of which the food shortage is often the basic cause or the exploited cause, France has returned to the international scene. Paris has recovered her animation, her elegance and her intellectual brilliance. Paris and France are rising again from the ashes where Nazism had buried them.

FOR EVERYONE

So, facing the project of rebuilding Europe, it is only normal and natural that France and England should join forces and go forward to help the whole continent to recover, as far as possible from its own resources. They do not bar anyone from working with them; they invite, indeed they appeal to, everyone. For the cause of peace is not the privileged cause of one or two nations. It is the cause of all the world.

The sensational nature of England's economic crisis, involving as it does the great experiment in Socialism, naturally centres world attention on her, but we shouldn't allow ourselves to be misled into regarding this as solely a British disaster.

Most certainly it is one of the momentous international developments of the postwar period. Upon Britain's degree of success in dealing with this emergency must depend largely whether the western democracies are able to hold their own against the westward sweep of an aggressive, empire-building communism.

England's bad luck is a stroke of rare good fortune for the Reds' ideal of world revolution. Should the crisis worsen and be protracted, it might prove to be the Samson whose strength would topple the pillars of the already shaky politico-economic structure of western Europe.

An already terribly weakened France would find it difficult, if not impossible, to keep her feet under such circumstances. French Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier, in a speech Sunday, attacked the aspirations of Communism which he said tried through propaganda to change the meaning of the word "democracy." The fate of the small nations of western Europe obviously is linked with that of France and England.

NATIONAL EFFORT

Prime Minister Attlee declared Sunday Britain is "certain of victory," and the consensus of observers seems to be that this forecast is warranted. However, none can say at this juncture how long the unfortunate country must struggle before recovery. Attlee himself minced no words over the seriousness of the position.

"We have to face now," he said, "before we have recovered from the effects of the war, and before our long-term plans have taken effect, the necessity of relying entirely on our own resources. This is a situation as serious as any that has faced us in our long history. We must, therefore, act vigorously and drastically."

The Prime Minister called on the country for a national effort comparable to that which was developed during the war. An estimated 10,000,000 radio listeners heard him proclaim:

"We cannot rest upon the help which our fellow members of the Commonwealth have been and are giving so generously, and even though plans may be put forward by our friends in America to help bring prosperity back to Europe, we must stand on our own feet."

That is a realistic approach to a tough problem, but there are certain imperatives to be dealt with. One of them is the strength of Attlee's leadership, which is being questioned by some of his own followers, especially the extreme left-wingers. It's quite possible that the economic crisis may be complicated by a political imbroglio.

The next few months are going to be crucial in the battle of England (and other hard-hit countries of western Europe) for economic recovery. That means this period is also going to be crucial in the struggle of the western nations to keep from being enmeshed in the Red net.

WHAT, NO SCAVENGERS!

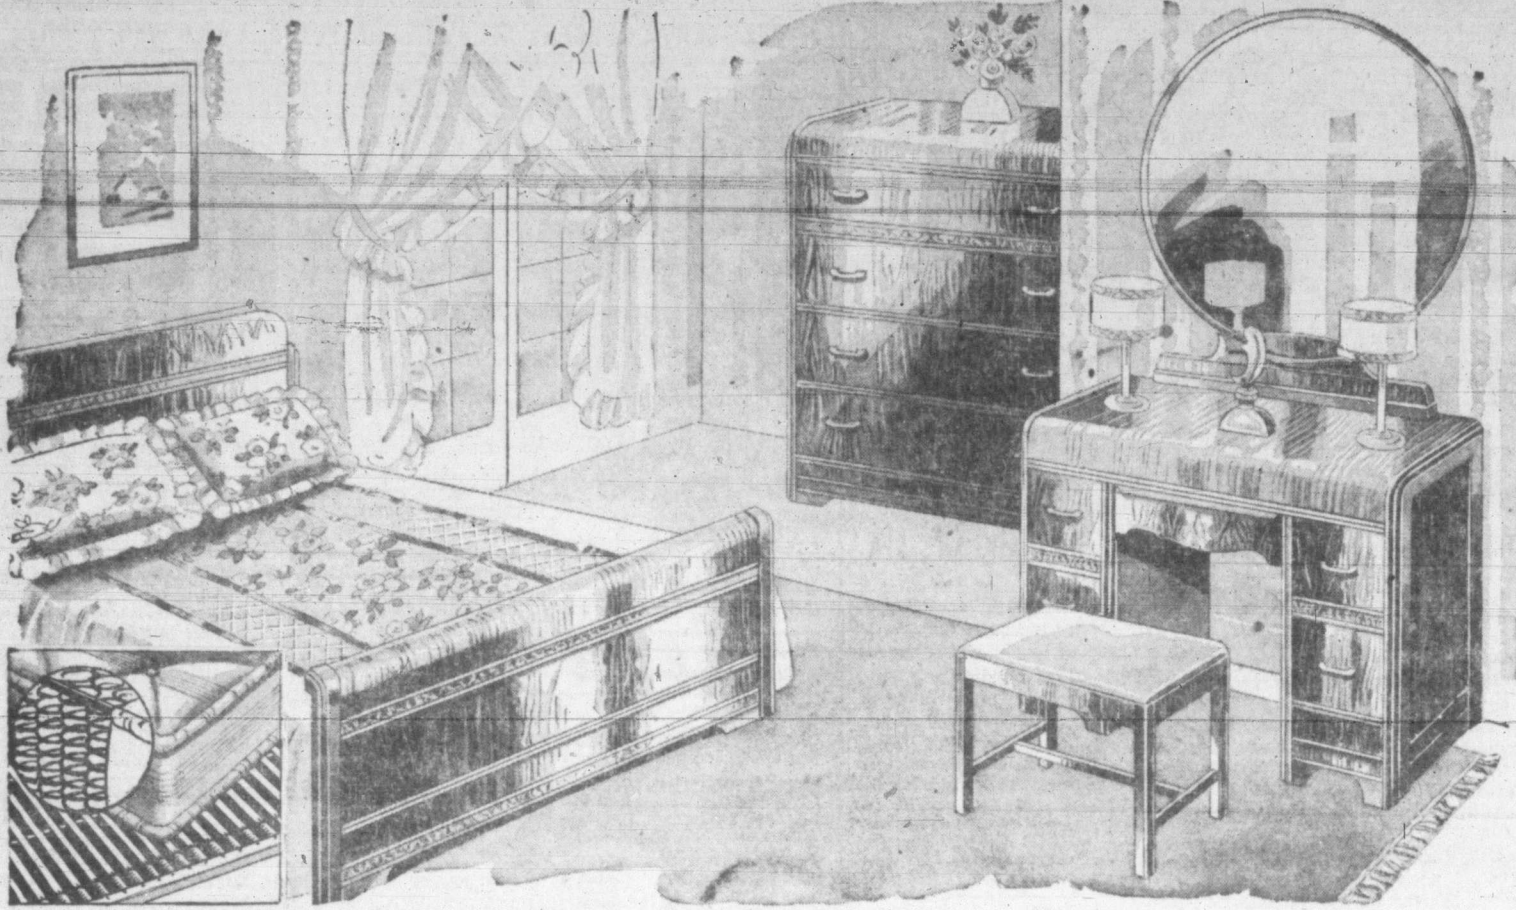

H. Hodge in BBC London Letter "Schooling" has brought us hard up against the problem of who's going to do the rough work. If we're all going to be scholars—who's going to be scavengers?"

SPEAK SOFTLY, SERGEANT!

Washington Post In "abolishing" profanity and hard-boiled tactics on the part of its noncoms, the army is catering to the sensitivities of the recruits it hopes to attract. Not only will the ground forces no longer condone abusive language, but they are going in for modernized leadership with a capital L. Nontheless, something will be lost in replacing the tough and salty top-sergeant with the new and mild-mannered edition, no matter how crisp and efficient the successor may be. May be persuasion can be relied upon to galvanize action as quickly as the raucous bawling of an angry sergeant, but somehow we doubt it. There is something electric about the vocabulary of a crusty and bellowing top-kick that subordinates can remember nostalgically long after the other aspects of their army careers have been forgotten. Whatever else may be said about it, it certainly gets things done.

Blackberries Begin To Move In Volume

Blackberries on Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands are beginning to move in volume while other berry crops are beginning to fall off, according to the B.C. Department of Agriculture horticultural news letter.

The loganberry harvest is just about over and yields have been somewhat disappointing. A few boysenberries are still being picked and a few ever-bearing strawberries are on the market. Picking of the Olivet cherry crops is about completed. Peach plums are over and gold plums and other plum varieties are being picked.

The yellow transparent apple crop is nearly finished, while the Duchess variety is nearly ready. Gravenstein and Wealthy are sizing but good rains are needed. Bartlett pears should be ready by the end of the month.

Most vegetables are in good supply and sweet corn is beginning to make its appearance on the market.

Most hay crops are under cover. Harvesting and threshing of grain crops is in full swing and the past few weeks have offered ideal weather for those operations.

Labor Condemns Imprisonment Of Leaders In Quebec

OTTAWA (CP)—The United Textile Workers of America (A.F.L.-T.L.C.) in convention Sunday mapped a "National emergency campaign" to obtain release of their imprisoned national director, R. Kent Rowley, after hearing delegates declare the charging and jailing of members of the union in connection with labor disputes in Quebec were a menace to all organized labor in Canada.

The convention endorsed a resolution urging that as a first step, members of the U.T.A.W. contribute their first week of pay increases to a "textile fighting fund" for the release of Rowley, now serving time in Montreal for charges of inciting to riot in textile strikes at Valleyfield and Lachute, Que.

Another resolution condemned arrest of members of the union as a denial of their rights as Canadian citizens.

Acting Director Madeleine Parent, who is presiding at the convention and who Saturday urged action to release Rowley and support for the union at Lachute where a strike for higher wages has been under way for 77 months, is one of those against whom charges are pending.

Saturday the convention heard Percy R. Bengough, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, make a plea for unity in the ranks of labor.

Will Protest Plans For Booming Ground

Residents of the area around Thetis Cove will protest any move to use the waters of the cove as a booming ground by any logging firms, they stated today. They are prepared to circulate a petition against any such project.

They claim that such booming would depreciate value of waterfront homes and would block the outlet of the proposed Gorge canal, as a strong southwesterly wind might cause the boom to break loose and destroy work done on the project.

Coffin Kills Man

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A falling coffin fatally crushed 42-year-old John Strelecki as he worked in another one. Four coffins were being moved 20 feet overhead on a crane Friday at Galant Products Co. when one of them weighing 450 pounds got loose and fell on Strelecki.

PLYMOUTH'S SAFETY-RIM WHEELS PROVIDE PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS

Blowout with a Plymouth Safety-Rim Wheel—the air lets go, but the patented revolving ridge holds the tire straight and tight on the rim. The force of the revolving wheel gives the effect of air pressure in the tire. As the car slows down, the tire goes down and the danger passes.

Deflated Tire on Plymouth Safety-Rim Wheel—no low firmly the tire stays on the rim. Thanks to the patented revolving ridge, Plymouth's stop was straight and safe. Don't be without this proved protection. Every new Plymouth has Safety-Rim Wheels as well as many other safety features.

Blowout with Ordinary Rim Wheels—the air lets go, the tire twists and turns, jumps the wheel entirely. With ordinary rim wheels the car swerves, jerks on the steering wheel and has to be fought to a stop. BE SAFE WITH PLYMOUTH SAFETY-RIM WHEELS.

ONE MINUTE NEWS ABOUT JOHNS-MANVILLE

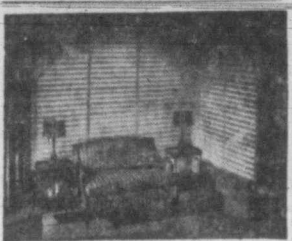

RESEARCH HELPS LENGTHEN LIFE

Almost every day we hear about some product that lasts longer because of research. An interesting example is a new Johns-Manville packing called Navalon. Packings, you know, are used for sealing oil, water and countless other liquids. And, since they come into direct rubbing contact with moving machine parts, most packings wear out quickly. In developing this new Navalon, J-M research engineers used a fibre so tough that it far outlasts other packings of similar type—making it ideal for use on pumps, compressors and other industrial machinery. Navalon is but one of the many hundreds of J-M packings designed and developed through years of research. Today there's a standard Johns-Manville Packing for almost every industrial application and J-M can also supply a wide variety of special packings and gaskets for out-of-the-ordinary uses.

Most Feel Only Immigrants With Jobs Should Enter Canada

By Canadian Institute of Public Opinion
Last week, the Gallup Poll reported that majority opinion among Canadians agreed with the idea that this country needed immigrants—but, further analysis shows, the bulk of voters feel that immigrants should only be acceptable if they have definite jobs to go to. Only a minority of Canadians would allow immigrants to come here and hunt up their own jobs.

Week-Long Threat Of Forest Blazes In Maritimes Eased; Damage Extensive

By Canadian Press

Temporarily at least, the forest fire threat that had hung over Cape Breton Island for more than a week lifted today as firefighters looked at the ravages of a score of blazes. Damage was estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

All fires were brought under control Sunday with the help of a downpour that soaked tinder-dry woodlands, but not before this had happened:

More than 1,000 acres of spruce and scrub leveled at Mira Gut on the eastern shore of Cape Breton, four buildings destroyed and others damaged, 200 vacationists evacuated to Glace Bay. Two homes and several other buildings burned to the ground near New Waterford, at least seven persons, including six children, homeless, 500 acres of timber blackened. Four other small fires in the immediate area.

One home destroyed, others damaged at Catalone, 17 miles southeast of Sydney, crops ruined.

The entire northern section of Cheticamp Island off the western shore of Cape Breton burned over. About 10 square miles of forest swallowed by a 12-day-long fire near Port Hood, 35 miles south of Cheticamp.

Unknown acreage of timber on Cape Breton highland range near Pleasant Bay, 20 miles north of Cheticamp, destroyed. Four square miles of spruce and hemlock destroyed in two fires near the university town of Antigonish.

Hundreds of acres of wood ravaged by three major and two minor fires near Moncton, N.B.

NEW DANGER IN ONTARIO

Meanwhile a new danger spot has reared through northern Ontario's, raging chain of forest fires as a blaze 25 miles west of Wawa was reported to have spread from an area of 10 to 50 acres in a few hours and burned out of control.

The sudden spread through tinder-dry woodlands developed Sunday night as the main force of firefighters was deployed elsewhere in the rich Mississauga area northeast of camp four headquarters where one of the 25 forest fires in northern Ontario raged unchecked.

Smith-Halberg Nuptials In James Bay United Church

On Saturday evening at James Bay United Church, the marriage was solemnized by Mary Winnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Halberg, 534 Michigan Street, to Raymond Henry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, 766 Armstrong Street.

White candles at the altar with gladioli and early autumn flowers decked the church. Rev. J. C. Jackson officiated and Miss Robert Halberg, as soloist, sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

For her wedding, the bride wore a heavy white satin gown fashioned with long torsoed bodice, sweetheart neckline, long point sleeves and full gathered skirt. Her floor-length embroidered veil fell from a Mary Stuart headdress. A double strand of pearls, gift of the groom, was her only ornament and she carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and white gladioli.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Joyce Willis, was gowned in a peach-colored frock; Miss Roseline Marns in her role of bridesmaid and Miss June Anne Halberg as junior bridesmaid, chose gowns of peach and aqua blue. All the attendants wore matching head-dresses and carried Colonial bouquets of peach and yellow gladioli. Mr. Halberg gave his daughter in marriage. William Thorburn attended the groom and Grant Halbert and Daniel Thompson acted as ushers.

A reception was held at the Seamen's Institute, Superior Street, where mothers of the bride and groom assisted in receiving guests. Tall white tapers in silver holders flanked the three-tier wedding cake which was wreathed in white tulle caught with miniature Colonial bouquets of peach and yellow gladioli. Tommy Thomas, uncle of the bride, gave the toast to her future happiness.

For a honeymoon in Vancouver and up-island, the bride traveled in a smart three-piece grey suit, white hat and gloves and black shoes and purse. A corsage bouquet of white gardenias completed her ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will return to Victoria to make their home at 1349 Grant Street.

Co-Workers Honor Miss Lillian Findlay

Complimenting Miss Lillian Findlay, a bride-elect of this month, her co-workers of the D.V.A., Belmont Building, entertained at a shower at the home of Miss Muriel Petherbridge, Carriack Street. On arrival, the guest of honor was presented with a gardenia and viola corsage bouquet. The many gifts were arranged in a decorated shopping basket. Music and games were enjoyed during the evening. Refreshments were served from a daintily appointed table covered with an ecru lace cloth and centered with a silver basket of asters, snapdragons and maiden-hair fern. Those present were: Mesdames S. Holliston, B. Dalman, B. Christopherson, M. Magnor, Misses Daphne Syson, Margaret Neilson, Joyce Hale, Margaret Hillis, Marion Burnell, Frances Harvey, Jerry Mumford, Joyce Richardson, Alice Van der Hulst, Ruth Jackson, Audrey Ruffell, Unity Baile, Marion Wright, Olive Kirchin, Peggy MacDougall, Faith MacDonald, Connie Williams and Mae French.

500 Women Attend I.F.U.W. Convention, Meet In Toronto

TORONTO (CP)—One of the present objectives of the International Federation of University Women is to replenish a membership depleted in European countries by the war, Dr. Stanislaw Adamowicz of Warsaw said today on the eve of the organization's first postwar conference.

At least 500 women, specialists in their field in everything from politics to science, literature, and education, have gathered in Toronto for this week-long I.F.U.W. convention, the first ever held in North America.

Reader in vital statistics and social hygiene at the State School of Hygiene, Warsaw, Dr. Adamowicz, who is I.F.U.W. president, noted that reorganization already was under way in countries forced to drop out of the federation during war years. And she felt this coming-meeting would do much to contribute to the association's growth.

Why was Canada picked for this world conference? "Because, with its 4,000 members, she is one of the countries with the largest representation in the federation," said the international president.

Some 150 of the women attending the sessions will be Canadians, 250 Americans, and the remainder will represent more than 25 countries from all parts of the globe. Italian and Egyptian delegates are coming; French and British women have arrived. And from Luxembourg—perhaps the smallest country represented—comes Mlle. Helene Palgen.

This is the ninth conference of the federation, which was founded 30 years ago to promote friendship among university women of different nationalities, as well as to further their common interests and to develop sympathy and co-operation between their countries. The last international meeting was held in Stockholm in 1939.

The Misses Mary Griffiths and Marjorie Kinsey were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the home of the latter, in honor of Miss Patricia McFadden, an August bride-elect. Corsage bouquets of roses and carnations were presented to the bride-to-be and her mother, Mrs. L. McFadden. Gifts were arranged under an umbrella decorated in pink and blue. Guests were: Mesdames S. Kinsey, R. Johns, N. Shepherd, W. Flude, M. Griffiths, A. E. Beasley, D. A. Hackwood, J. Sutton, R. Warburton, H. G. Cox, Misses M. Shepherd, B. Flude, R. Veitch, J. Ash, C. Williams, J. McBratney and G. Fregard.

In addition to wearing light, loose clothing, a little water at frequent intervals should be drunk to offset heat in summer. Sweetened drinks taken in excess quantities create greater thirst, medical officers say.

Wedding Bells Ring For Audrey Patrick

Rev. W. W. McPherson officiated at the wedding ceremony held Saturday evening at 8 in Oak Bay United Church, which united in marriage Audrey Bertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Patrick, 2682 Topp Avenue and Henry Albert Bruce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Bruce, 1617 Monterey Avenue.

White and pastel shaded gladioli were arranged at the front of the church where the bridal party stood. Small bouquets of the same flowers marked the guest pews. During the signing of the register, Mrs. J. L. Lister, as soloist, sang "Be-cause."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride made a charming picture in her ivory satin wedding gown, fashioned with long fitted bodice falling to a full skirt, slightly en train. Silk braid trimmed the sweetheart neckline and the lily-point sleeves and formed a scroll and flower effect at the waistline. An embroidered veil misted from a heart-shaped, beaded coronet.

The bridal bouquet was American Beauty roses centred with orchids and white heather.

Matron of honor, Mrs. K. Wheeler, Vancouver, cousin of the bride, was gowned in a heavy crepe gown of crocus pink; bridesmaids, Miss Mona Bolton, R.N., and Miss Dorothy Bruce, wore gowns of the same material in sea aqua. All attendants complemented their gowns with crownless picture hats of white straw trimmed with black mohair and carried fan-shaped bouquets in blue, mauve and pink, respectively.

Charles Bruce stood with his brother as best man and ushering guests to their seats was another brother, Kenneth Bruce.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the main lounge at the Oak Bay Hotel.

Tall green baskets filled with white gladioli formed a setting before the huge fireplace where the bridal couple, assisted by Mrs. Patrick and Mrs. Bruce, received 200 guests.

A four-tier wedding cake, flanked with white candles in crystal holders centred the refreshment table. Robert Macnicol, Vancouver, an uncle of the bride proposed the toast.

Vancouver Honeymoon For Bridal Pair

Honeymooning in Vancouver before returning to the city to make their home are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunaway, whose marriage took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

The bride, the former Jeanne Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Clifford, of Vancouver, was given in marriage to the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Dunaway, 1063 Chamberlain Street, by her father.

Tall standard baskets of gladioli and sweet peas decorated St. Mathias Church for the service, performed by Archdeacon R. Connell.

The bride chose a period-styled gown of white taffeta fashioned with shirred puffed front and neckline, and lily-point sleeves. A floor-length veil cascaded from her headdress of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of red rosebuds, swansonia and white heather. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Violet Clifford, in a mellow taffeta gown, and Miss Gwen Kerr, in an aqua taffeta gown with dainty matching net hat and mittens. They carried Colonial bouquets.

The groom chose his brother, G. Dunaway, as best man, and K. Smith as usher.

A reception was held at Terrace Court, Terrace Avenue, where parents of the bridal couple received guests. Pink lily gladioli, sweet peas and white tapers centred the lace-covered reception table. Mr. L. Rooper proposed the toast to the bride's future happiness.

The bride changed to a taupe gabardine suit, brown topcoat, white accessories and a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses for traveling.

Fried Chicken Is All-Time Favorite

Everybody likes fried chicken. Right now chicken is de luxe item for the family menu. So let's take a glance at a few hints on how to fry it for best results.

Selecting a bird for frying: Get a young one, with flexible-tipped keel bone, tender-fleshed and with thin waxy skin. It should not be over five months old and should weigh from 1½ to 3½ pounds.

To prepare for frying: Cut chicken so that each piece has its portion of skin to prevent drying. Dip pieces in milk to enhance flavor and color. Coat chicken to keep in juices and assist in browning and crispness. For coating, heavy skillet to give depth of about ½ inch. Use sizzle test (hot enough to sizzle when a drop of water is added). Fry meaty pieces first, slipping less meaty pieces in between as chicken browns. Avoid crowding: Use two skillets if necessary. As soon as chicken begins to brown, about 10 minutes, reduce heat, tightly cover and cook slowly until tender, about 30 to 60 minutes, depending on size of pieces. Finish on top of stove or in oven. Add one to two tablespoons of water before covering pan if pan cannot be tightly covered or if bird is heavier than three pounds. Uncover last 15 minutes to re-crisp skin.

Rules for good gravy: Measure fat and flour carefully. Include crumbs from frying chicken. Use chicken stock milk or a combination of these as liquid. Season well. Have gravy of thin cream consistency.

To vary flavor and color of gravy: Use sour cream as part of the liquid and fat. Add minced onion, chives or parsley, chili sauce or catsup, or chopped cooked mushrooms.

Makes Early Sandwiches—Cut thin slices from top of long bread roll, leaving lid attached at one side. Scoop out, butter cavity and fill with tuna fish salad. Chill before serving.

British Styles For Autumn Feature Comfort In Hats

LONDON (CP)—From a display of autumn models by the Associated Millinery Designers it was evident that both off-the-face and sideways movement of hats are well established with designers and buyers, for these styles dominate another season's crop of models.

More thought appears to have been given to comfort, for the crowns on autumn hats are larger and rounder than they have been and fit more snugly to the head.

Quills, ostrich and coq feathers and plumes are by far the most popular trimmings for the autumn although sequin mesh and tassel fringes were used on cocktail and theatre hats.

Colors played a large part in these models and there was a predominant trend toward contrasting color for the brim, or as a lining for the front of a large brim. Chartreuse yellow and nut brown, light and olive green, fuchsia and navy blue, royal purple and cyclamen, claret and pale peach, oyster and red, black-and-red and black-and-white were some of the color combinations.

One smart black hat had a large east-to-west-brim lined with white on the inside and large seagull feathers trimmed the top of the brim.

Designers looked far afield for inspiration for their models. Variations of the Napoleonic tricorn were frequently used. One was made in marigold felt with black plumes falling over the front point, and the crown had three tucks in the back.

Engagements

Announcements to appear under this heading will be accepted at the Times Advertising Department. Minimum charge $1.50 for 10 lines, and 10¢ for each additional line.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fox, 400 Davida Avenue, wish to announce the engagement of their elder daughter, Phyllis Joan, to Donald Ian Ewan, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ewan, of Victoria, B.C. The wedding will take place September 6, at St. John's Church at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGrath, 1212 Carlisle Avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Marie, to Don David Jickling, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Jickling, 1653 Pembroke Street. The wedding will take place on Aug. 30, 1947.

For teen-agers a large cart-wheel hat was shown with tucked ribbon on the inside of the brim framing the face. A square-shaped halo was another design for teen-agers.

"Inflated" berets were other popular designs and many of these were modeled with the east-to-west movement, and some straight-brimmed hats were slightly rolled in front.

W.I. Board Meets

Members of the South Vancouver Island Women's Institute Board, representing 21 institutes on the southern part of the Island, met in Victoria last Friday afternoon.

The president, Mrs. E. Glover, was in the chair and a special guest was Mrs. Stella Gummow, provincial superintendent of institutes in British Columbia.

Arrangements were completed for the institute get-together picnic for all women's institute members and their families at the Experimental Station Park on August 23. Mrs. C. Johns and Mrs. G. A. Acreman of Sooke are in charge of a sports program and it was announced the picnic will take place, rain or shine.

Dates for the annual district conference were set as Nov. 4 and 5 when Mrs. Gummow will give a report on the Associated Countrywomen of the World Conference in Amsterdam in September, which she will attend.

A gift of a handwoven spread from Mrs. S. Coulter, was accepted by the board for a draw at the fall conference, proceeds to be given to the Mayor's fund for Food for Britain.

Mrs. D. J. de Rochie, Sooke, was named secretary-treasurer of the board.

Breakfast Muffins Easily Prepared

English muffins can be quite simply prepared in your own kitchen. Hearty-sized muffins are a perfect bread for breakfast—split (with a fork or fingers—never cut), toasted and spread with melted butter while piping hot. Unlike most hot breads, these muffins keep for several days when stored in a covered jar.

ENGLISH MUFFINS

(Yield: 12 muffins, 4½ inches in diameter.)

One-half cup boiling water, 3 tablespoons butter, 1½ teaspoons salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, ½ cup evaporated milk, 1 yeast cake, ¼ cup lukewarm water, 1 egg, beaten, 4 cups sifted flour.

Pour boiling water over butter, salt and sugar. Add milk. Dissolve yeast in the lukewarm water and add with egg, and 2 cups flour to first mixture. Stir to blend well. Add remaining flour and knead until firm and elastic. Let rise until double in bulk, about 1 hour. Toss on floured board and roll out ¼-inch thick. Cut in 4-inch circles. Leave on board. Cover and let rise until double in bulk, about 1 hour. When light, lift carefully to hot ungreased griddle or heavy frying pan. Bake slowly. (The griddle should be heated well and then the heat turned very low so that the muffins will brown slowly). Muffins should bake about 7 minutes on each side.

Peach Refresher—Four to 5 canned cling peach halves, 1 cup grapefruit juice, 1 egg white, 1 cup finely-chopped ice. Drain peaches and force through colander or sieve to make 1 cup puree. Add remaining ingredients and mix by shaking well in quart jar. Serve at once in small glasses.

HISTORIC MEDICAL HIGHLIGHTS—No. 15

Life in Jars and Bottles

A GREAT, obvious medical fact exists today that is pretty much taken for granted. It is this: that doctor's services—and their pharmaceutical extension—are everywhere available quickly and conveniently. That's why it's a good thing that—historically—soda fountains evolved from carbonated water "prescriptions," and that merchandises lines were added to the apothecary's function. Without these things there would be many fewer drug stores... and greater difficulty in obtaining the services that are the basic reason for their existence.

Our profession is pharmacy... our business is serving your needs whether they be medical or incidental. And in every aspect, you'll find accuracy, cleanliness and fair dealing to be permanent.

The DOCTOR Says:

POLIO NO LONGER CATASTROPHIC
By WILLIAM A. O'BRIEN, M.D.

Infantile paralysis (poliomyelitis) is an acute virus infection of the spinal cord and brain which may be followed by weakness and paralysis of some of the muscles. The disease is more prevalent in children, although adults may be affected if they escaped infection when young or if their immunity has run down.

Physicians have known about infantile paralysis for nearly 200 years, although it is only in the last 50 years that sharp outbreaks have occurred. Infection can develop in an isolated farm house, or thousands of children and adults in one city may contract the disease at one time.

Infection with the virus of poliomyelitis is thought to be as common as that of measles. Paralysis following the infection is relatively uncommon and the majority of those who have been paralyzed recover the usefulness of their muscles. In an average epidemic, four to five children and adults out of every 1,000 in the affected region come down with the disease.

Pain and stiffness of the neck and other muscles may be an early indication that the muscles are to be affected. Fever may rise again, after a temporary lull. The patient will become more restless and uneasy, and then paralysis is noted.

NO KNOWN REMEDY

After the spinal cord and brain heal, the extent of permanent damage varies with the number of nerve cells which have been permanently destroyed. There is no known remedy which will prevent infantile paralysis, shorten the course or lessen the immediate complications.

Fatality rates vary in different outbreaks. Although infantile paralysis ranks well down on the list of serious diseases in childhood, parents fear it more than any other disease.

Success of modern methods of caring for paralyzed muscles has lessened some of the public concern over the prospect of permanent crippling. The availability of large sums of money by public and private agencies such as the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which guarantees complete care and rehabilitation for everyone suffering from infantile paralysis and its after effects, has completely removed poliomyelitis from the ranks of catastrophic illnesses.

SOME AMAZON INDIANS SLEEP IN BRANCHES OF TREES

In the heart of South America is a little-known region of great size. It covers hundreds of thousands of square miles in the upper parts of the Amazon valley.

White explorers have gone into that region from time to time, and some of them have come back alive. Others have vanished after falling victims to illness or have been slain by Indians or wild beasts. They have been "lost in the Amazon forest."

Amazon Indians use spears, blowpipes and darts to bring down game, as well as large bows and arrows. With the help of nets they take fish from the great river and from the streams which flow into it.

These Indians know how to make clay dishes and how to weave baskets, but their homes are crude affairs. Many of them live in places which have been described as "nests in the midst of bushes." Some of them actually sleep in trees, and are without fixed homes. They travel far and wide through the forest, hunting game. When night comes, they choose trees with branches which will support them while they sleep.

There are, however, thousands of Amazon Indians who make their homes in villages. The houses in the villages have thatched roofs and walls made from clay spread over tree branches.

One of the words which Indians have given to our language is "hammock." The natives of wild parts of Brazil have had hammocks for time untold. Palm leaves are used in making their hammocks.

In lower parts of the Amazon valley, within range of the Atlantic coast, are Indians who tell a strange story about a white visitor of long ago.

"This visitor," they say, "had a white beard and his name was Sumé. He taught us how to make fire, and showed us the way to plant seeds. He told us that we should live in peace with one another. One day he learned that some wicked Indians had made a plot against his life, so he went away. He never returned."

A story of much the same kind was told by the Aztec Indians of Mexico. Cortez learned about the tale when he invaded Mexico. It is possible that a few shipwrecked sailors from Europe reached the coasts of South America and Mexico before the time of Columbus. The visits of such sailors may have given rise to Indian legends.

50% MORE JAM OR JELLY

When you use CERTO Results are sure

CERTO, the tried-and-true fruit pectin, allows you to make up to ONE-HALF MORE jam or jelly from your fruit. It takes about one-third of the time needed for old-fashioned long-boil recipes and considerably less work. You can be sure of good results.

1 SHORT BOIL. Certo jams need only a one-to-two-minute full, rolling boil... Certo made jellies a half-minute to a minute. Old-time recipes take about three times as long.

2 50% MORE JAM OR JELLY. The Certo boil is so short that very little juice can go off in steam. In long-boil recipes you lose one-third or more of your juice this way.

3 NATURAL TASTE AND COLOUR are retained in Certo jams and jellies because the boil is too short to spoil the fresh fruit taste or dull the fresh colour.

4 NO GUESSWORK. Look for the book of Tested Recipes under the label of every bottle of Certo. Follow exactly the recipe for the particular fruit you are using and you need fear no failures.

Milland And Teresa Featured In Comedy

The screen love-life of Ray Milland and Teresa Wright does not run smoothly—in comedy or in drama.

Recently co-starred in the melodrama, "The Imperfect Lady," Ray and Teresa are reunited in Paramount's laugh-packed comedy, "The Trouble With Women," which arrives today at the Capitol Theatre with Brian Donlevy also starred. In the comedy, as in the drama, Milland and Miss Wright have many romantic ups and downs. Ray is a college professor in "The Trouble With Women," and Teresa a newspaperwoman whose libelous article on Milland's theory about women leads him to sue her paper.

'Cross My Heart' Stars Betty Hutton

A bright new comedy arrived on the screen of the Atlas Theatre today. It is Paramount's "Cross My Heart," co-starring Betty Hutton and Sonny Tufts and featuring Michael Chekhov, Rhys Williams, Ruth Donnelly and Howard Freeman.

Filled with many laugh-provoking situations that were played to the hilt by the very competent cast, "Cross My Heart" tells the story of a girl to whom lying comes almost as easily as breathing, and a man to whom any kind of dishonesty is anathema.

'Great Expectations' Held At Oak Bay

In "Great Expectations," held over at the Oak Bay Theatre, an outstanding performance as Pip, the young blacksmith's apprentice whose great expectations come true when he is left a fortune, is given by John Mills, and playing opposite him in the role of the lovely Estella, is Valerie Hobson. Finlay Currie handles the difficult part of Magwitch, the convict who leaves Pip the money he has made in Australia because of a kindness the boy showed him in the past, and Marita Hunt is the rich and eccentric Miss Havisham.

Alluring Adele Stops The Show

Columbia's chief costume designer, Jean Louis, created such alluring gowns for blonde Adele Jergens to wear in "The Corpse Came C.O.D." that members of the crew had difficulty concentrating on making the comedy-mystery starring George Brent and Jean Blondell and coming tomorrow to the Dominion Theatre.

For example, director Henry Levin noticed a star-eyed grip admiring Miss Jergens' Louis-attired figure. "Let's go, man," admonished Levin, "this is a movie we're making, not a fashion show."

"This," retorted the grip—not removing his eyes from La Jergens, "is an entire production."

ROYAL THEATRE

Greatest of all the foes which faced the M-G-M location company who traveled to the Florida scrub country to film "The Yearling," filmization of the Pulitzer prize-winning novel, now showing at the Royal Theatre, was the element of time. The motion picture industry has been properly credited with many marvels but even the movie-makers have not solved the problem of stopping the clock.

Little shoats and baby calves quickly reach porcine and bovine maturity. Corn grows practically before one's eyes under the blazing Florida sun. Tobacco leaves broaden quickly; lush foliage withers; the rains come. Hence, "The Yearling" company was in a veritable race with nature to film each growing thing at its proper stage of development.

'Hungry Hill' Held At Plaza

The part Greyhound John in "Hungry Hill," held over at the Plaza Theatre, is played by Dennis Price, who made such a success as the villain in "Caravan." Born on June 23, 1919, Dennis had his stage grounding in the hard school of repertory, and he also played in John Gielgud's company at the Queen's Theatre in 1937. During the war he served with the artillery for three years. On his return to civilian life he joined Noel Coward's famous tour of "This Happy Breed," "Blithe Spirit" and "Present Laughter," and during the run took over Noel Coward's parts.

TOO RUGGED—This is a fond kiss—token of affection from Little Tyke, his 11-month-old pet lion cub, says George H. Westbeau of Auburn, Wash. Okay, George, you can have it.

Admiral Grant, New Naval Staff Chief, Well Known Here

Rear-Admiral Harold T. W. Grant, whose appointment as chief of naval staff is expected to be confirmed by Ottawa next week, became well known in Victoria towards the end of World War II when he served as Senior officer afloat in Canada's Navy in the Pacific area.

At the present time, he is Chief of Naval Administration and Supply at Naval Service Headquarters, Ottawa, a post covering a number of important branches, including that of Scientific Research and Development. He will succeed Vice-Admiral H. E. Reid, present chief of naval staff.

Rear-Admiral Grant became known in Victoria with the commissioning in 1945 of H.M.C.S. Ontario. He was captain of the warship which sailed against the Japanese just before the Pacific war was completed.

Admiral Grant became well known to Canadians in the winter of 1943 when, as Captain of the British cruiser H.M.S. Enterprise, he took a prominent part in the dashing action when that ship fought in the Bay of Biscay, in company with H.M.S. Glasgow. Taking on eleven German destroyers, the cruisers sank three of the enemy, damaged others, and drove the remainder into a French port.

It was an action of the most daring order, from which the Canadian officer emerged with a Distinguished Service Order. During the bombardment of Cherbourg he was wounded.

Slim, dark and wiry, Admiral Grant was born in Halifax in March, 1899, the son of Hon. MacCallum Grant, former lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia.

When the first world war started he entered the Royal Canadian Naval College at Halifax. At 16 he was serving in the Leviathan, flagship of the famous Hooke Browning on the North American and West Indies station. He also saw action conveying ships to Norway.

In 1920 Admiral Grant was a sub-lieutenant on the Canadian cruiser Aurora. After a year in the Aurora, he spent two years in H.M.S. Ramillies, a battleship of the Royal Navy. He later specialized in navigation in H.M.S. Dryad at Portsmouth.

He was promoted lieutenant in 1922 and later spent a couple of years on the west coast in destroyers. In 1927 he returned to battleships, the Queen Elizabeth and the Warspite, and served under Admiral Sir Rorer Keyes. In 1928 he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant-commander.

After serving ashore and as navigating officer in the Saguenay, he moved to Ottawa as assistant director of Naval Intelligence and Plans. He was promoted commander in 1935 and was named director of naval reserves. In 1938 Admiral Grant commanded the Skeema.

In 1940, during the expansion period of the Navy, he was chief of naval personnel, and was subsequently appointed Captain "D" at Newfoundland, following which he went overseas to take command of H.M.S. Enterprise.

7 Button Fish In Derby Prize List

The large gathering at the Anchorage Brentwood Bay headquarters Sunday afternoon for the prize-presentation following the staging of the closing derby—the international event of 1947 by the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association, observed a one-minute's silence in tribute to the two members, H. A. "Mickey" White and Carl Armstrong, who were drowned Wednesday evening in Cole Bay waters.

The closing chapter of the competition schedule for this year saw seven of the eight prize-winning salmon put on the derby ladder in the bronze-button class, a 25-pound-three-ounce specimen caught by Eric Aronson, Brentwood Bay, leading the parade to win the rowboat and outboard engine prize and the "Joker" Patton International Trophy. A total of 560 derbyists participated.

Close behind him—just five ounces—was George Simmons, 801 Craigflower Road. He took the handsome combination radio and phonograph with his 28 pound 14 ounce catch. In third place was Frank Curtis, 1211 Hillside Avenue, with a 27-pound four ounce salmon. His prize was a silver tea set complete with tray. Number four on the heavy-fish ladder was Walter Lock, 939 Esquimalt Road. His catch went 27 pounds two ounces. He won a coffee maker.

OTHER PRIZEWINNERS

J. Clyde of 2824 Rockwell finished in the fifth slot to get a set of traveling bags. His catch was 25 pounds 12 ounces. Nairne E. Plaxton, winner of the first derby of '47 with a 36-pounder, was again in the money, winning a toastmaster. The Holland Avenue resident this time put a 21 pounds 12 ounces catch on the scales. Tom Derry, 128 Wildwood, placed seventh with a 21 pound novelty table, with a 21 pound eight ounce salmon. Ken Dicks, diamond winner of 1946 with a 42-pounder and also the lad who scored the most number of button fish and registered them, won a planer with his 18 pound 14 ounce salmon.

The rod-reel-and-line rowboat special prize was won by George Lane with a 41.5 pounds catch. Harry Woolston, president of the angling clan, officiated at the presentation of prizes, getting each prize winner to say a few words about "how I did it." Ray Ritchie, president of the Chinook Club, spoke briefly. Ritchie called for youngsters from the crowd to determine consolation prize winners. The prize electric washing machine was won by John Muir, 3401 Quadra Street. The mixmaster went to Craig Johns, 3373 Salisbury. L. Pritchett won the blanket, while the electric iron went to W. J. Lucas, R.R. 2, Victoria.

Biggest catches were taken off Bamerton, Sandy Beach, off the Stone House and in the narrows beyond the Goldstream island—in fact, fish were taken in many parts of the inlet yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Lock had five salmon by midday, while director, Ed Duffin's party took 11 of the small-weight specimens out of the inlet. Most of the big ones were caught on spoons, the Aronson with a No. 6 G. Stewart, two of the other large ones with Sunbeam spoons.

This finishes the competitions of the association for the year, with the exception of the Alcock Shield in September, open only to members who had registered button fish this year up to just prior to the date to be announced.

Esquimalt Meat Mkt. Wins Softball Opener

Brentwood Aces, who came through a torrid four-game series with Army and Navy Vets in the semifinal series of the city senior A softball playdowns, had little left yesterday afternoon at Central Park as they opened their best-of-five playoffs with Esquimalt Meat Market for the city title and bowed to the hard-hitting league winners, 9 to 2. Second game in the series is slated for tonight at 6.30 with the third game scheduled for Wednesday night.

Southpaw George Kinch, ace of the Esquimalt nine, tossed a five-hitter at the suburbanites, allowing one run in the second inning when Bill Benn, who had walked, circled the bases on a single and a passed ball, and another in the ninth on a pair of one baggers.

Esquimalt scored twice in the first inning, added three in the third on two Brentwood errors, a base on balls and a double by Ray Byers, scored a singleton in the sixth and three in the seventh.

Ray Byers and Chick Newman each picked up two hits for the winners, who got a total of nine from Ray Hough, Brentwood's pitcher.

ERRORS COSTLY

For five innings of the contest Hough matched Kinch on the hill allowing but one hit to Kinch's two singles, but poor support by his mates accounted for the first five runs the winners tallied. Esquimalt banged out eight hits in the last three frames as Hough tired.

Brian Sluggett is expected to get the call from manager Rom Knott tonight with Byers or Ralph Bonner the likely starter for the league winners.

In the final semifinal game Saturday Brentwood defeated Vets, 6 to 5, behind the 11-hit hurling of John Furmston.

Danny Foster Wins Speedboat Classic; 400,000 Spectators

NEW YORK (CP)—Danny Foster, a 29-year-old Californian, skillfully manoeuvred the speedy Detroit-owned Miss Peps V over a hazardous 90 miles of rough water Sunday to win the 40th running of the international gold cup regatta.

The 12-cylinder Allison-powered Miss Peps V, racing under the colors of the Dossin brothers, streaked across the finish line in the third and deciding heat, a good ½-mile ahead of the only other craft to complete the race. Miss Great Lakes, owned and driven by Albin F. Fallon of Detroit.

A crowd estimated by police at 400,000 lined the shores of Rockaway Inlet in Jamaica Bay for the classic, run over a choppy three miles of water described by veteran drivers as presenting the worst conditions ever experienced in the history of this speedboating fixture.

Band leader Guy Lombardo, who was born in London, Ont., and who won the gold-plated silver mug in the 1946 race on the Detroit River, was one of the casualties of the heart-break stretch. A fouled oil line forced him out in the third lap of the final heat.

In cricket in Canada and started a three-year campaign which it is hoped will result in Canada sending to England in 1949 a team worthy of taking on the best of the British cricketers on even terms in a test match series.

Legion Force Playoff For First Place In Senior Baseball Loop

Canadian Legion, who trailed the Eagles throughout the season, yesterday afternoon came through with a 9 to 6 victory over Pitzer and Nex in the final league game of the season to tie the Eagles for the league lead, Eagles lost their chance to walk off with the honors when they dropped a pair of games Saturday, one to the Legion, 11 to 9, and the other to Pitzer and Nex, 7 to 6.

As a result of Pitzer and Nex's even split in their week-end games, the gasmen finished half a game ahead of Navy for third place. However, one tie game between the two clubs remains to be replayed tonight at Macdonald Park at 6.30 with the winner taking down third slot. Legion will meet Eagles at the same park Wednesday night in a sudden-death game for the league title.

GUELPH, Ont. (CP)—Life suspensions were imposed on the team managers of two Hamilton and one Dundas girls' softball teams at a meeting Sunday of the Provincial Women's Softball Union. The team managers are Betty Dymond of the Hamilton Ladies of the Intercity Women's League; Joan Smethurst of Suters in the Hamilton City League, and H. W. Shimmens of the Dundas Ladies.

Wenman's Great Bowling Marks Incogs' Victory

The C's had previously gone through nine matches with a record of eight wins and one draw.

Wenman, after taking five of the opposing wickets for ducks, lifted the sixth for the loss of one run in eight overs. Godfrey Wenman took two wickets for three runs and Morgan two for 14. Incogs lost six wickets before passing the C's total, but Dabiel stepped in to put 35 runs on the board.

In the other league match of the day ex-R.A.F. defeated the Albions, scoring 58 runs for nine wickets to their opponent's 35 all out. Jagger of the winners was high bat with 24.

An exhibition match saw Oak Bay defeat Cowichan, scoring 124 runs for three wickets as compared to Cowichan's 81. Brewin knocked up 74 for Oak Bay.

Spaulding Takes Third Main Event At Langford Track

For the third straight week Jack Spaulding of Vancouver was the winner of the 30-lap reverse main event at the auto races Saturday night at the Langford Speedway. Spaulding was at the wheel of the car owned by Don Olds and Bill Perkins of Seattle. Dave Cooper, after moving into second position on the 25th lap, field it until the finish with Eddie Rossano of Seattle third.

Meet was marred by an accident to Jerry Vantreight of Victoria who was taken to the hospital for treatment of a badly cut face after his car climbed up on top of another machine during the running of the third heat race. Vantreight's machine did a somersault through the fence.

Digger Caldwell paced the time trials, won the helmet dash and the first heat race. Caldwell started last in the main event and after moving up to fourth, went wide on one of the turns and dropped out.

Cooper won the second heat, Spaulding the third and Doug Richards the fourth.

Legion Force Playoff For First Place In Senior Baseball Loop

Canadian Legion, who trailed the Eagles throughout the season, yesterday afternoon came through with a 9 to 6 victory over Pitzer and Nex in the final league game of the season to tie the Eagles for the league lead, Eagles lost their chance to walk off with the honors when they dropped a pair of games Saturday, one to the Legion, 11 to 9, and the other to Pitzer and Nex, 7 to 6.

As a result of Pitzer and Nex's even split in their week-end games, the gasmen finished half a game ahead of Navy for third place. However, one tie game between the two clubs remains to be replayed tonight at Macdonald Park at 6.30 with the winner taking down third slot. Legion will meet Eagles at the same park Wednesday night in a sudden-death game for the league title.

Athletics Split Two; Tied With Vancouver

In a deadlock with Vancouver Capilano for fourth place in the Western International League standings, Victoria Athletics returned to their home park for the opening tonight of a week's engagement with Wenatchee and Salem. A's split a doubleheader with Yakima Sunday, winning the first game 6 to 4 and dropping the second 8 to 7. Vancouver, meanwhile, swept a pair from last-place Wenatchee, 10 to 7 and 11 to 4 to continue their great drive towards the top.

Action tonight will start at 7.30 with the A's and Wenatchee playing two more innings of the local team's 7 to 4 win at Wenatchee last month. The game was seven innings by agreement but league president Bob Abel ruled it had to be completed. A single game is scheduled tomorrow night and a doubleheader Wednesday. It is possible two games will also be run off tomorrow.

Starting Thursday the Athletics will battle Salem in four games. With catcher Vic Mastro picking up three hits, including a home run and driving in five runs the A's gave southpaw Bill Woop another mound victory in the first game against Yakima Sunday. However, Woop had to be rescued by Jim Arnold in the sixth, the latter striking out three of the four batsmen to face him in the seven-inning affair.

WIN IN SEVENTH
Yakima came from behind to win the second affair. After the home club had grabbed a 3 to 1 lead in the first inning the A's pushed across a pair in the third and added three in the fifth to go ahead 6 to 5. Yakima tied it up in the sixth and scored two runs in the seventh to win. Athletics pushed across their seventh and last run in the top of the ninth. Ray Fortier was the losing pitcher with Woop and Arnold also seeing action. Only five of the Yakima runs were earned.

Up at the head of the league Spokane and Salem were neck and neck after the former took a double drubbing from Bremerton and Salem twice smacked down Tacoma.

Salem whipped Tacoma 12 to 3 in an opening clash, then squeezed out a 2 to 1 win in the finale. Spokane bowed low before Bremerton's 19 to 2 triumph and then dropped the nightcap 6 to 2.

Other new series tonight send Salem to Vancouver, Spokane to Tacoma and Yakima to Bremerton.

Cardinals Win Pair To Close On Dodgers

Murray Dickson, slight right-hander with the big heart, is one reason why St. Louis Cardinals are right in the fight to retain their National League baseball laurels. The curveballer, currently pitching the best ball of his career, was the big man in the Cards' twin victory over Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday which moved them to within 3 1/2 games of the front-running Brooklyn Dodgers. Dickson hurled a four-hit 5 to 0 shutout in the first game and saved St. Louis' 7 to 5 second-game victory with an expert bit of relief pitching.

Yesterday's victory was his third shutout. He has won nine and lost 11.

Southpaw Joe Hatten and outfielder Dixie Walker combined to lead the Dodgers to a 2 to 0 triumph over the last-place Philadelphia Phillies. Hatten limited the Phils to five hits to register his 11th victory. Walker got two of Brooklyn's seven hits off Bil Denny, each blow driving in a run.

The fourth-place Boston Braves staged a two-out ninth-inning rally to come from behind and defeat New York Giants 7 to 5 in the second game of a double-header after the Giants had won the opener 6 to 2. With the Giants leading 5 to 3, two out and nobody on base, the Braves put together three straight singles for one run. Then Tommy Holmes smashed his ninth home run to put the Braves ahead.

Big John Mize slammed his 36th home run for the Giants in the opener and Will Marshall hit his 29th for New York in the nightcap.

Clyde McCullough's eighth-inning single with the bases loaded gave Chicago Cubs a 4 to 3 victory over Cincinnati Reds.

Australian Tennis Team Will Battle Czechs Next Week

MONTREAL (CP)—Australia stood on the threshold today of a chance to engage the United States in the Davis Cup final, with only one nation—Czechoslovakia—blocking the path.

Aussie netmen blasted Canada into the discard yesterday as Jack Bromwich and Colin Long won in the doubles over Gordie MacNeil and Edgar Lanthier 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Australia had captured the opening day singles Thursday with Denny Pails and Geoff Brown as their representatives.

Today, with nothing at stake, Pails will play against Brendan Macken in one singles match while Brown will engage Henri Rochon in the other. It is likely that the members of the Czech team will be on hand at the Mount Royal courts to witness the games.

The two top singles players on the Czech team—Jaroslav Drobny and Ferenc Cernik—are due to arrive here from Europe by plane today. They will be joined by Ladislav Hecht, third member of the team, who has been in New York.

FORECASTS CLOSE SERIES

The Australia-Czechoslovakia inter-zone final will be played on the Mount Royal grass courts next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Captain Roy Cowling of the Australian team, while feeling naturally enough that his men will come through with a victory, admits that it should be a "close series." Australia lost the cup to the United States last year.

The Bromwich-Long team breezed through Canada's combination of MacNeil and Lanthier in 46 minutes, taking only 13 minutes to run off the last set in which the Canadians managed to get only eight points against 24 for the Aussies.

French Holly In Surprise Longacres Derby Triumph

Keiser Captures Spokane Tourney By Single Stroke

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Herman Keiser of Akron, Ohio, dropped a three-foot putt on the 17th hole Sunday to clinch first place in the $10,000 Esmeralda Open golf tournament with a seven-under-par 273 after Ben Hogan and Ed Furgol had battled through a drama-packed afternoon in a futile effort to overtake him.

Little Ben, the cool customer from Hershey, Pa., even wrote the tourney's only hole in one into the scorebook, but missed catching Keiser by a stroke. Furgol, the Pontiac, Mich., professional, missed his chance on the greens, three-putting two during the day.

Ten strokes behind Keiser, with a 283, was Stan Leonard of Vancouver, leading Canadian professional golfer.

Leonard was hot in the early rounds and Sunday, when he carded a 70, he was temporarily in third place. On the first three rounds, the west coast linksman shot 138-75 for 213—nine off the pace up to, that time.

Seattle Beaten Twice By Padres; All-Stars Perform

The rest of the Coast League, which hasn't done so well with the Los Angeles Angels, gangs up against the league leaders tonight in the circuit's annual all-star game.

The seven other clubs, co-managed by Oakland's Casey Stengel and San Francisco's Lefty O'Doul, will field an aggregation including seven men batting .307 or better in an effort to flatten the slugging Angels in their own ballgame.

Pitcher Cliff Melton, veteran San Francisco southpaw, has been named to start for the all-stars. Righthander Bill Flening is the probable choice for Bill Kelly's boys, who boast a 6 1/2-game lead at this stage.

The Seals stayed in second place behind the Angels by dividing a pair of 3 to 2 decisions with Hollywood yesterday while the Angels split with third-place Oakland, 4 to 6 and 3 to 2. Cece Garriott's 15th homer with one on saved the day for the leaders.

With Max West clouting homers No. 29 and 30, San Diego swept a double-header from Seattle, 3 to 0 and 3 to 2, with Manny Salvo and Seals the winners over Fletcher and Dubiel.

Portland tightened it hold on fourth place by busting Sacramento twice, 9 to 5 and 5 to 2, despite two homers by Solon John Rizzo, his 14th and 15th.

5 Persons Appear In Courts For Dangerous Driving

Four persons pleaded guilty in city police court and one in Saanich court today to police charges of dangerous driving on the highways during the week-end, all involved in damage to either cars or property or both.

In each case $35 fines, or, in default, five days in jail, were imposed by J. R. Saunders and A. I. Thomas, Justices of the Peace, presiding in the courts in the absence of Magistrate H. C. Hall, who is on vacation.

In four of the five cases the motorists had their drivers' licenses, suspended for three months.

The only case where the suspension on operating a motor vehicle was not imposed was that involving Dorothy Sedgwick. Her car was in collision with a boulevard tree on Heywood Avenue, Constable Ray Maitland told the city court.

Other city cases brought Aubrey Lamerton, Roy Grovum and Roy Eldridge before the court to get the fine and suspension. Lamerton collided with a cluster lamp standard on View Street between Blanshard and Quadra, the court heard. The case against Grovum arose when he was in collision with a parked car on Quadra Street at Topaz Avenue. Constable Norman Bath giving the circumstances. The same constable told the court Eldridge struck a car going in the same direction on Craigflower Road and then continued on to crash into a telephone pole.

George Naunton was the motorist who pleaded guilty to dangerous driving on Glanford Avenue near Quadra Street, in Saanich court. Cpl. Jack Hamilton and Constable Robert Coleman attended the scene. The court heard the defendant, in a heavy truck, was thrown out of the truck and that it went through two fences before winding up in a plowed field. Police found him unconscious by the roadside.

Maj. David L. McKeand, formerly officer-in-charge Eastern Arctic Patrol and government representative in the Arctic Archipelago, will speak on "Patrol with Royal Mail Ship Nascope" at the Lions Club Friday.

Cause of the spectacular derailment was not known. Odum Near Death By Taking Sleep During World Record Flight

CHICAGO (AP) — Pilot Bill Odum said today he would try it again after setting a new record for the fastest trip around the world.

The 27-year-old veteran flier broke all previous globe-circling records as he buzzed the Douglas airport control tower Sunday just 73 hours, 5 minutes and 11 seconds after leaving Chicago Thursday on his 19,645-mile solo trip.

"The good Lord was taking care of me for a while last night," Odum said, explaining he had dozed off from fatigue over the mountains of northwestern Canada and awoke to find himself flashing toward a 19,000-foot mountain peak.

Despite failure of an automatic pilot, lack of gas near the end of the trip, and extreme weariness, Odum, with his converted army A-26 bomber, the Reynolds Bombshell, broke all existing records. These included the former solo record set in 1933 by the late Wiley Post, of 186 hours and 49 minutes, and the previous flight of the Bombshell with Odum, Milton Reynolds, Chicago pen manufacturer, and Flight Engineer T. Carroll Salce, which made the trip in 78 hours 55 minutes last April.

Fishermen Report Tuna Runs 'Spotty' Off West Coast

Approximately 25,000 pounds of tuna were unloaded at B.C. Packers today, but fishermen returning from tuna fishing grounds some 50 to 100 miles out to sea reported catches were not as good as they were three weeks ago.

Fishermen said the weather was fine, but tuna runs were "spotty" when compared to the runs which took place around July 15. Some said, however, that conditions might change overnight and catches might spurt upward before the tuna season draws to an end.

The ocean was still alive with tuna all along the west coast, they said, but it was just a question of being at the right spot when they started biting.

As soon as the heavy run of tuna slacks off, many one and two-man boats now fishing for them are expected to return to salmon fishing. Heavy runs of sockeye and coho are expected in the next two weeks.

Air Cadet Camp Concludes Tomorrow

The last of three, two-week summer training camps for air cadets at the R.C.A.F. station, Patricia Bay, concludes Tuesday with a parade and inspection at 10 a.m., and a track and field meet at 2 in the afternoon.

This last camp has been attended by over 280 cadets from British Columbia and Alberta. Altogether, nearly 850 boys have been stationed at the Saanichton airport during the passed six weeks.

The boys have been given courses in air force trades and have undergone actual practice with R.C.A.F. equipment. They have been instructed by permanent R.C.A.F. personnel.

Thieves who broke into Preddy's drygoods store at 1317 Esquimalt Road last night did not bother with the cash and other articles in the cash register, but stole a quantity of children's underwear, some brassieres and four boys' sweaters, Sgt. James Smart of the Esquimalt police reported today. Entry was gained by forcing a rear window.

Coffee Prices Take Another Jump

Price of a number of well-known brands of coffee took a 3-cent per pound boost Saturday with another increase anticipated in September, according to word received by a Victoria coffee merchant today from a Vancouver importer.

The increase was not unexpected as coffee took what the trade termed a two-cent corrective boost July 25. At that time it was stated by some merchants that a further 7-cent increase would take place once old stocks were sold and merchants moved into the primary markets.

Importers felt that in all coffee would take approximately a 9-cent boost on the pound. To date it has gone up 5 cents per pound. Increased labor costs and the fact that green coffee advanced 4 cents on the pound with merchants allowed only a four-cent advance on roast coffee, were among reasons for the increase, according to merchants.

"There should have been an advance of 4½ cents a pound on roast coffee as there is a 15-per cent shrinkage on the green coffee," one merchant said referring to the 4-cent increase Jan. 1.
